SYNOPSIS

It's 1985, and Robbie Hart (Sandler) is a wedding singer who can cover the hits, deliver the perfect toast and even get Grandma on the dance floor moving to the "Rapper's Delight." But, when Robbie is dumped at his own wedding, he has a total eclipse of the heart and becomes the ultimate cynic. It's not until he meets a waitress named Julia (Barrymore) that Robbie starts to come around. Julia is about to get married herself, though, and unless Robbie can pull off the performance of a lifetime, the girl of his dreams may be gone forever.
