

February 8, 2006

Steve Buscemi Cast in New Line's We're the Millers

LOS ANGELES (Feb. 7, 2006) – Steve Buscemi (The Sopranos, Ghost World) is set to star in the New Line Cinema comedy We're the Millers, penned by the Wedding Crashers team of Steve Faber and Bob Fisher, it was announced today by New Line Production President Toby Emmerich.

Buscemi will play a marijuana dealer that is looking to get out of the business. He decides to take one last job, which takes him to Mexico, where he creates a make-believe family – "the Millers" – in order to smuggle 1,400 pounds of pot back into the U.S.

Peter Cattaneo (The Full Monty) will direct We're the Millers. Tucker Tooley, Vincent Newman, Happy Walters and Matthew Weaver are producing. David Heyman is executive producing the film, with JC Spink and Chris Bender co-executive producing. New Line production executives Richard Brener and Cale Boyter are overseeing the project.

Faber and Fisher scored a hit last year with the comedy Wedding Crashers, which earned more than $209 million at the domestic box office and was the highest grossing comedy of 2005.

About New Line Cinema Corporation:

Founded almost 40 years ago, New Line Cinema is the most successful independent film company in the world. Its mission is to produce innovative, popular and profitable entertainment in the best creative environment. In addition to the production, marketing and distribution of theatrical motion pictures, the fully-integrated studio has divisions devoted to home entertainment, television, music, theater, merchandising and an international unit. In 2005, New Line partnered with HBO to form Picturehouse, a new theatrical distribution company to release independent films. A pioneer in franchise filmmaking, New Line's Oscar-winning The Lord of the Rings trilogy is one of the most successful film franchises in history. New Line is a division of Time Warner, Inc. (TWX).

Contact:

Candice McDonough
(310) 967-6991
candice.mcdonough@newline.com